

I feel strongly that the NO CALL should stay in place. I like to have peace in my home, and this law, stopping unwanted sales, telemarketers from using my phone has made a difference. Do not weaken this law, as it is I still get some requests for donations over the phone.